TRIBUTE TO CHUCK CLEMENT

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Chuck Clement of Rochester, NH, on being named by the Rochester Chamber of Commerce as Business Leader of the Year 2001.

Mr. Clement is a third generation owner of Eastern Propane. Thanks to Chuck's leadership and management skills, Eastern Propane is now the 23rd largest retailer in the Nation providing propane, oil, kerosene, diesel fuels, and service throughout New England.

Chuck has provided his customers with high quality service and has implemented several service programs to further enhance his business. Due to his commitment to the community of Rochester, he has moved his central office from Danvers, MA, to Rochester, NH, his new hometown.

He encourages his employees to give back to the community by donating their time and efforts to organizations including: Strafford County YMCA, Rochester Rotary Club, and the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce. Chuck was among the first supporters of the Rochester Public Library Fund and the Rochester Opera House Fund drives.

Chuck's outstanding contribution and leadership in his business and community are commendable. His exemplary performance and civic awareness have benefitted the community of Rochester and our entire State. It is an honor and privilege to represent him in the Senate.●

TRIBUTE TO LAURA MONICA

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Laura Monica of Bow, NH, for being named by the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce as Small Business Person of the Year 2001.

Laura is president and founder of High Point Communications Group, Inc. located in Bow, NH. Her firm is a strategic communications company that works with companies, non-profit organizations and government agencies throughout New England and the United States. High Point specializes in the areas of public relations, marketing, corporate communications, media relations and media training.

Laura is a contributor to the local community and is active in many civic organizations including: Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce, Leadership New Hampshire, Greater Manchester American Red Cross, American Cancer Society New Hampshire Division, and Greater Manchester United Way.

She is active in professional organizations and is a member of the Public Relations Society of America and is a former member of the Bank Investor Relations Association and the National Investor Relations Institute.

Laura received her BA from the University of New Hampshire graduating magna cum laude and received her MPA from the University of New Hampshire graduating summa cum laude. She has attended seminars by the Wharton School and by the American Bankers Association, School of Bank Investments. She resides in Bow, NH, with her husband, Bill Verville, and their twin daughters: Brittany and Caitlin.

I commend Laura for her exemplary achievements in business and civic responsibilities. The citizens of Bow and our entire State have benefitted from her contributions to the community and local economy. It is truly an honor and a privilege to represent her in the U.S. Senate.●

(The nominations received today are printed at the end of the Senate proceedings.)

REPORT ON BLOCKING PROPERTY OF PERSONS WHO THREATEN INTERNATIONAL STABILIZATION EFFORTS IN THE WESTERN BALKANS—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—PM 30

The PRESIDING OFFICER laid before the Senate the following message from the President of the United States, together with an accompanying report; which was referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

To the Congress of the United States:

Pursuant to section 204(b) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1703(b) (IEEPA), and section 301 of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1631, I hereby report that I have exercised my statutory authority to declare a national emergency in response to the unusual and extraordinary threat posed to the national security and foreign policy of the United States by (i) actions of persons engaged in, or assisting, sponsoring, or supporting, extremist violence in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, southern Serbia, the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (FRY), and elsewhere in the Western Balkans region, and (ii) the actions of persons engaged in, or assisting, sponsoring, or supporting acts obstructing implementation of the Dayton Accords in Bosnia or United Nations Security Council Resolution 1244 of June 10, 1999, in Kosovo. The actions of these individuals and groups threaten the peace in or diminish the security and stability of the Western Balkans, undermine the authority, efforts, and objectives of the United Nations, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), and other international organizations and entities present in those areas and the wider region, and endanger the safety of persons participating in or providing support to the activities of those organizations and entities, including United States military forces and Government officials. In order to deal with this threat, I have issued an Executive order blocking the property and interests in property of those persons determined to have undertaken the actions described above.

The Executive order prohibits United States persons from transferring, paying, exporting, withdrawing, or otherwise dealing in the property or interests in property of persons I have identified in the Annex to the order or persons designated pursuant to the order by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State. Included among the activities prohibited by the order are the making or receiving by United States persons of any contribution or provision of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of any person designated in or pursuant to the order. In the Executive order, I also have made a determination pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of IEEPA that the operation of the IEEPA exemption for certain humanitarian donations from the scope of the prohibitions would seriously impair my ability to deal with the national emergency. Absent such a determination, such donations of the type specified in section 203(b)(2) of IEEPA could strengthen the position of individuals and groups that endanger the safety of persons participating in or providing support to the United Nations, NATO, and other international organizations or entities, including U.S. military forces and Government officials, present in the region. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, is authorized to issue regulations in exercise of my authorities under IEEPA to implement the prohibitions set forth in the Executive order. All Federal agencies are also directed to take actions within their authority to carry out the provisions of the order, and, where appropriate, to advise the Secretary of the Treasury in a timely manner of the measures taken.

I am enclosing a copy of the Executive order I have issued. The order was effective at 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time on June 27, 2001.

I have issued the order in response to recent developments in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, southern Serbia, and elsewhere in the
